Republican Platform.

The preamble is rather mixed in telegraphing, but recites the history of the party and anticipates a continuance of its national efforts. The platform declares:

1st. That the United States of America is a nation, not a league by the combined workings of the National and State governments under their respective constitutions, the rights of every citizen are secured at home and protected abroad and the common welfare promoted.

2d. The Republican party has preserved this government to the hundredth anniversary of the nation's birth and they are now embodiments of the great truths spoken at its cradle; that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and pursuit of happiness; that for the attainment of those ends the governments have been instituted among men deriving their just power and consent from the governed and these truths are cheerfully obeyed, or if not will be vigorously enforced. The work of the Republican party is unfinished.

3d. The permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union and the complete protection of all its citizens in the free enjoyment of the rights and duties to which the Republican party stands sacredly pledged; the power to provide for the enforcement of the principles embodied in their constitutional amendments is vested by those amendments in the Congress of the United States and we declare it to be the solemn obligation of the Legislative Executive Department of the government to put into immediate and vigorous exercise all their constitutional powers for removing any just causes of discontent on the part of any class and for securing to every American citizen complete liberty and exact equality in the exercise of all civil, political and public rights to this end we imperatively demand a Congress and a chief executive whose courage and fidelity to thes duties shall not falter until these results are placed beyond dispute or recall.

4th. In the first act of Congress signed by President Grant, the National Government assnmed to remove any doubt as to its purpose to discharge all just obligations to public creditors and solemnly pledge its faith to make a provision at the earliest possible period for the resumption of United States' notes in coin. Commercial prosperity, public moral and national credit demand that the promise be fulfilled by a continuous and steady progress to specie payment.

5th. Under the constitution the President and heads of departments are to make a nomination for office. The Senate is to advise and consent to the appointments and the House of Representatives is to accuse and prosecute faithless officers. The best interests of the public service demands that these distinctions be respected that Senators and Representatives who may be judges and accusers should not dictate appointments to office. The enviable rule in appointments should have reference to honesty, fidelity and capacity of the appointees giving to the party in power these places where harmony and vigor of administration require its policy to be represented but permitting all others to be filled by persons selected with some reference to the efficiency of the public service and the right of all citizens to show in honor of rendering public service to the country.

6th. We rejoice in the quickened conscience of the people concerning political affairs and will hold all public officers to a rigid responsibility and engage that the prosecution of all who betray official trusts shall be swift thorough and unsparing,

7th The public school system of the several States is the bulwark of the American Republic and with a view to its security and permanence we recommend an amendment to the constitution of the United States forbidding the appropriation of any public funds or property for the benefit of any school or institution under sectarian control.

8th. The revenue necessary for current expenditure and the obligations of the public debt must be largely derived from duties upon importations which so far as possible should be adjusted to promote the interests of American labor and advance the prosperity of the whole country.

9th. We again affirm our opposition to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies and demand that the National domain be devoted to free homes for the people.

10th. It is the imperative duty of the Government so to modify the existing trades with European governments that the same protection shall be afforded to the adopted American citizen that is given to the native born and that all necessary laws should be passed to protect emigrants, in the absence of power in the States for that purpose.

11th. It is the immediate duty of Congress to fully investigate the effect of the immigration and importation of Mongolians upon the moral and material interests of the country.

12th. The Republican party recognize with approval the subtantial advances recently made toward the establishment of equal rights for the women by the very important amendment effected by Republican legislations in the land which concern the personal and property relations of wives, mothers and widows and by the appointment and election of women to the Superintendence of education, charities and other public trusts. The demands of this class of citizens for additional rights and privileges and immunities should be treated with judicious consideration.

13th. The Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the territories of the United States for their government and in the exercise of this power is is the right and duty of Congress to prohibit and extirpate in the territories that relic of barbarism—polygamy, and with such legislation as shall secure this end and the supremacy of American institutions in all the territories.

14th. The pledges which the nation has given to her soldiers and sailors must be fulfilled and grateful people will always hold those who imperilled their lives for the country's preservattan in the kindest remembrance.

15th. We sincerely deprecate all sectional feeling and tendencies; we therefore note with deep solicitude that the Democratic party counts as its chief hope of success upon the electoral vote of the United States secured through the effort of those who were recently arrayed against the nation, and invoke the earnest attention of the country to the grave truth that a success thus achieved would reopen sectional strife and imperil the nation's integrity and human rights.

16th. We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with making its control in the House of Representatives the triumph and opportunity of the nation's recent foes; with reasserting and applauding in the National capital, the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion; with sending the Union soldiers to the rear and promoting Confederate soldiers to the front; with deliberately proposing to repudiate the plighted faith of the government; with being equally false and imbecile upon the overshadowing financial questions; avoiding the ends of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation; with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the lower House of Congress utterly incompetent to administer the government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus unworthy and incapable.

17th. The National administration merits for its honorable work in the management of domestic and foreign affairs, and Prefident Grant deserves the continued gratitude of the American people for his patriotism and his eminent services in war and peace.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee, and signed Joseph R. Hawley, chairman, and Charles E. Smith, Secretary.

Why Johnsons' Ram Failed to get a Prize.

Michigan Farmer: Our county fair is just over; but Johnson's Cotswold ram did not take the prize that was offered for the finest animal of that kind. Judge Klump was Chairman of the Committee on Rams, and he manifested the deepest interest in Johnson's, indicating clearly that if any sheep ought to take a prize that one ought to. Johnson's ram was in a pen with a high board fence by itself, and before adjudicating, the Judge thought he had better go in and make a close examination of the animal for the purpose of ascertaining the fineness of its wool. As soon as the Judge reached the interior he walked towards the ram, whereupon the ram began to lower his head and to shake it ominously. Just as the Judge was about to feel the fleece the ram leaped forward and planted his head in the Judge's stomach, rolling him over on the ground. Before the Judge had time to realize what had happened the ram came at him again and began a series of promiscuous butts, each given with the precision and force of a pile-driver. It butted the Judge on the back, on the ribs, on the arms, on the shoulder-blades, on thd bald place on his head and on his shins; it butted his spectacles off; it butted his high hat into silk chaos; it butted him over into the corner and up against the fence; then it butted four boards off the pen and escaped into the fair grounds and skedaddled, and would not wait to have the first prize ticket pinned to his ear. Judge Klump did not go after it. No, no! Four men carried him home. The doctor anticipates he will recover by the next fair.

A petition has been presented to the Kansas Legislature asking for the punishment of horse thieves by whipping for the first offense, whipping and branding for the second offense, and hanging for the third. In cases where Courts are not handy, the third punishment will be given first. By the way of testing the efficacy of this provision, seventeen horse thieves have been hung during the past two months.

Mr. John G. Lake wrote, or translated, a poem called "The Hen and the Honey-Bee." In the third verse are the words: "Espied a bee upon a rose." A bee-keeper of many years' experience, writing about this expression, says: "I have never seen a bee upon a rose in all my experience." Poets who write of Nature are not expected to know what Nature is.

The festive grasshopper has made his appearance in Minnesota, and at various points wheat fields have been laid waste in a night. The 'hoppers are now half an inch long, and will get wings about the first of July. Their present operations cover a territory of fifty miles long, and extending in breadth from a point ten miles North of the Winona and St. Peter road, South to the St. Paul and Sioux City road.

Los Angeles Herald.

THE DAILY and WEEKLY HERALD has more than double the circulation of any other paper published in Southern California. Business men recognize it accordingly as the best advertising medium South of San Francisco.

SATURDAY,..............JUNE 17, 1876.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Two cases of small pox made their appearance in the San Francisco city prison on Wednesday morning.

Julius Heinrich Peterman, the celebrated German Orientalist, is dead.

The Republican Senatorial caucus of New Hampshire nominated E. H. Rollins for U. S. Senator.

It is reported that Mrs. Lincoln's reason is entirely restored,

Howe, arrested for participating in the riots at Carson City, jumped his bail but was captured near Washoe.

Yesterday Speaker Kerr was so far recovered as to be able to take a short ride.

The nomination of Hays for President by the Republican National Convention does not meet the universal approval of Los Angeles members of the party. They regarded Blaine as their first choice, Bristow second and Hays third.

ELSEWHERE we publish a card from Colonel CRAWFORD, superintendent of the Santa Monica Railroad, in which he denies some of the statements made in the HERALD relative to the bad faith of the Land Company toward those to whom they have sold lots. We have no desire to misrepresent the Santa Monica Land Company, nor any one, and with the assurance that we received our information from a resident of Santa Monica, and from the letter of our correspondent whose name was signed to his article, we leave the matter to be settled by the citizens and the Land Company.

Blaine Beaten—Hayes Nominated.

Very near is not always to obtain. There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip. Nothing is more uncertain than politics, and, if we except death, one can never be positively sure that a thing will be until it is. They have beaten our friend BLAINE. It is too bad. He almost had it. The prize appeared to be within his grasp, and yet he failed to grasp it. White man is very uncertain, and he is never more uncertain than when a delegate to a Republican National Convention. The most disappointed man in the United States at this moment is JAS. G. BLAINE. Yesterday morning men bet his chance against the field; today he is a distanced horse, and we who lost our money on him are too infernal mad to do him reverence. Politically we are glad he is knocked on the head. He was the strongest man the Republicans could have nominated, and the Democrats would have found him very difficult to beat. Personally and sympathetically we regret his defeat. We always like to see a man succeed who tries hard to succeed. BLAINE certainly worked as many wires as any candidate ever did work in a single game. We sympathise with him because he was opposed by GRANT, and through him by every Federal officer in the United States. He was the anti-Administration candidate, and as such deserved the support of every lover of honest government. HAYES, the nominee, is at present Governor of Ohio. He has previously filled that position two terms. He twice represented the Cincinnati district in Congress. He was in the army during the rebellion and came out a general, we believe. He is a good man and will make a good run—falling fifty or sixty votes short of election.

Somebody Mistaken.

Once more the Evening Express, either designedly or through a misconception of the facts, misinterprets the HERALD with regard to its views concerning the Santa Monica railroad. We stated that the road now did not pay, and after giving the reasons why it did not we proceeded to say that the only plan to make it a paying investment was to extend it into the interior. Our cotemporary says it has the authority of Superintendent CRAWFORD for stating that the road is paying and has paid a handsome profit from the day of its completion. This is all very well as far as it goes. But on authority higher than the authority of Colonel CRAWFORD we are confident he is mistaken to the amount of several hundred dollars per month. This question, however, cannot, as we look at it, affect the prime object the Express has in view, which is the securing of half a million dollars subsidy to the road from the people of Los Angeles and San Bernardino counties. It appears to us that in place of maintaining the deception that the road is a paying property, the object would be more nearly attained by truthfully stating that the section now built did not pay; that the owners could not, from their own means, build more road, and unless the people supplied the means for extending it into the interior the enterprise would necessarily fail, and the road would at any early day pass into other hands. If the truth is told at the outset there will be no loss of confidence in the future, and those who do take stock will understand in just what they are investing their money.

"Dialect."

The remarks of the HERALD on the prevailing weakness of newspaper reporters in supposing that because Hank Small is a locomotive engineer he is necessarily unlearned, uncouth and boorish, has drawn forth similar, though in some instances much more severe, comments from a number of our cotemporaries. The Grass Valley Union, which is edited by one of the levelest-headed, fairest-minded, biggest-hearted men in the State, says:

That mistake is not confined to those goslings of the press who can never be anything but geese. Neither is that mistake confined to locomotive engineers. There is a writer who seems to be popular in America who writes the same way when he describes any character in the interior of the country. We allude to Bret Harte. Harte is a novelist who is supposed by Eastern people to describe faithfully and accurately, in his novels, the inhabitants of California. He makes all the interior folks rough and uncouth, saving now and then a lawyer whom misfortune has banished to the mining part of the country; and he reserves all the grammar for his city people. Of course persons acquainted with this Pacific coast know that Harte does not know anything about interior people or the interior things of this coast. There are miners, of course, who do speak in a rough way, and who are not accustomed to get their grammar just right, but Harte makes them all the same way. There are miners within the sound of our voice, were we speaking out loud, at this present writing, who can talk well with Harte or anybody else in several modern languages, and who can discourse intelligently of the classics, and who are well posted in philosophy. We know men who do this, and yet work for their livelihood. Moreover, there is not one miner in ten but is familiar with the affairs of the world, as those affairs occur day by day. The same can be said of men in other occupations than that of mining on our coast. The population here is made up of people from all parts of the world, and the people who had enterprise enough to cut loose from the humdrum ways of old communities and come to this land are not apt to be ignorant and stupid. The most ignorant class among this people are those who white descriptions of people they never saw, and about a people they have not the sense to appreciate.

Card from Colonel Crawford.

EDITOR HERALD: Permit me to correct you upon two very material points which you incorporated in your article upon "Bad Faith" and published in this morning's issue. In the first place water has been introduced in a number of private residences in Santa Monica besides mine, witness: Messrs. Clarke & Selfe, Boehme, Rap, Murray, Arnold, Giroux, Scott, Parker, O'Melveny, the Santa Monica Brewery and several others. In the second place there are no less than three public fountains located throughout the town, one at Seventh street and Nevada avenue, another at Third street and Nevada avenue, and the third upon railroad avenue, and the citizens of Santa Monica are at liberty to help themselves, free of charge, until such time as an increase of the number of buildings requiring water service will warrant the expenditure of laying down mains upon every cross street. The company charge no one twenty-five cents per barrel for water. There is, however, a water wagon which hauls water from the public hydrants to the doors of private houses, for which convenience the householders have to pay a small consideration.

Yours, &c.,
JOS. U. CRAWFORD, Sup't.

It is said trains will commence to make regular trips to the latter point next Monday evening.

San Francisco News.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16th.—Several stockholders of the Western Savings Bank held a meeting yesterday to investigate the affairs of that institution. The bank was formerly on Post street, but is now on California street. Until within a few months, Frederick Clay was cashier, with the assistance of Director J. J. Leburn. He ran the business his own way, and it is charged that he loaned the institution funds on bad securities and invested it in enterprises in which he had pecuniary interest. He absconded under the assumed name of Pemberton from Australia, and at Tahiti, in company with J. J. Misburn, whence he escaped just in time to avoid a requisition made for his extradition. Upon the organization of the Western Savings and Trust Company, Clay gave out that the institution had a paid up capital of $250,000. This capital consisted of promissory notes; some of them not worth more than the paper on which they were written. Clay gave his and others, but paid up capital does not consist of such notes. He became during his management of this bank the proprietor of numerous enterprises, most of which were losing games.

Hayes' and Wheeler's nomination were totally unexpected by the Republicans here, but are favorably received. A ratification meeting will be held on Wednesday next.

Silver coin 4 to 5, trade dollars 7 to 8 per cent. discount.

The steamer Gaelic for Japan and China, took over 86,000 half and trade dollars.

Last Wednesday a party of young hoodlums bombarded a China wash house on the corner of Union and Larkin streets, with a small howitzer; the aim was bad, but the side of a house in the vicinity was shattered by the slugs with which it was loaded.

An attempt was made this afternoon to assassinate a Chinaman on Ross alley, by four of his countrymen; their intended victim was so badly hacked with knives as to render his recovery a matter of uncertainty.

Hannah Kern, a married woman of intemperate habits was found dead near her residence on Shasta street, this morning. When her husband went to bed last night he left her in the kitchen; she was under the influence of liquor at the time, and the supposition is that during the night she became more intoxicated and while in that condition went out, and falling down was smothered.

Rudolph Blumenburg was arrested on Wednesday afternoon by United States Marshal, on a charge of felony for which he was indicted in Washington on the 5th inst. The offence for which he was arrested is alleged to have been committed two years since; at that time he was a resident of Washington, where he formed the acquaintance of Henry Birch and Patrick Culinare, both of whom were temporarily impecuneous and wished to borrow money on Government bonds.

Blumenberg represented himself to be a man of unlimited means, it is alleged, and having gained their confidence loaned Brick $17,600 on thirty bonds of the par value of $1000. He loaned Culinare about the same amount on $44,000 worth of bonds. Soon after he sailed for Europe, and nothing further was heard of him until several months ago when he appeared as a witness in the celebrated Blumenberg case. Brick happening to see his name in the newspapers went to the court and identified him. The indictment had not been made out at the time however, and the arrest was postponed until the necessary documents arrive from Washington. It is said that Blumenberg obtained over $100,000 worth of bonds in this way.

J. G. Riley, the present manager of the Western Savings Bank, who was put in to right affairs, stated this morning to a reporter that the parties who held the dissatisfied stockholders meeting last night, did not own a dollars worth of stock in the corporation, nor any interest in it whatever. About three weeks ago Weste had transferred to him and the principals in the meeting last night, 500 shares of stock belonging to his sister. After the transfer Weste made application to examine the books. All those required by law were furnished him, but when he demanded to see Clay's private accounts they were refused. Riley said that there was a feud existing between Clay and Weste and that the latter, by bringing the bank into bankruptcy proceedings would have been enabled to show up Clay's management and that to do that he was willing to injure the bank. He admitted that Clay's management was loose and bad but insisted that any attempt to force the bank to liquidate would now result in simply a loss to the stockholders. The depositors were all secured.

Racing at Stockton.

STOCKTON, June 16th.—In the trotting race to-day, mile heats, three in five, for a purse of $150, there were three entries: Solid Silver, Drew Girl and Daisy. The race was won by Solid Silver; time, 2:40, 2:42, 2:49¼. There was a very fair attendance.

The Republicans are now firing cannon in honor of the nominees of the Cincinnati convention.

How the Nevada Republicans Like It.

VIRGINIA CITY, June 16th.—The nomination of Hayes and Wheeler is received here by the Republicans with great satisfaction. Salutes, bonfires and public speaking are the order of the night. It is considered the strongest ticket that could have been put in the field.

Mr. Futheri, of Pennsylvania rose to point of the order claiming that the vote had not been cast properly, stating that both himself and another from his 6th district desired to vote for James G. Blaine. The Chair held that delegate had a right to vote his sentiments. The delegates from Pennsylvania appealed from the decision of the Chair and the Chair was sustained by the delegates from Pennsylvania. Mr. Oliver then said Chair did not recognize him before putting the question. The Chair said they had not heard the gentleman. The delegate said the Chair did not hear me because he did not want to hear. The Chair said, the gentleman from Pittsburg, Mr. Oliver, dishonored himself in making the remark. Colonel Dick Thompson of Indiana took the floor and protested in the name of the American people against the Chair-resorting to insult coming from a delegate. The Chair, amid confusion, said it withdrew the offensive remark. Great confusion now reigns. Twenty men on their feet at once all clamoring to be heard. Great excitement in the galleries. Motion followed motion. In the midst of the uproar Mr. Cessna took the platform and after many attempts to be heard said that the Chair had ruled wrong; that under rule the vote should be cast by the Chairman and that no change could be allowed. He claimed further that the Pennsylvania delegation was under instructions to cast a vote of the State as a unit for Hartranft and could do nothing else.

The crowning glory of a man is a good hat. It is the distinctive mark of a gentleman. No matter if his clothes are threadbare, if he has a stylish hat; people don't look at anything else; in fact, it not only covers his head but the defects of all sorts which would become visible were his hat not perfect. Desmond has the most stylish and perfect articles at his store on Main street, in Temple Block, that can be made.

They have eleven meat markets in Santa Barbara—population eleven and a half—which gives meat for all the inhabitants and the bones to the dogs. San Diego has two meat markets, no dogs and no population worth mentioning, and so the bones go to the frisky editors.

Horse thieves are still on the rampage. On Wednesday night Mr. James Jones, who lives about a mile and a half from the city, lost a good animal which he had staked out to feed. The horse is a bay, with blazed face, and white hind feet. Mr. Jones is a poor man, and the loss will be severely felt.

The ladies will be delighted to learn that Samuel Prager has returned from San Francisco and the Paradise Store is re-opened with an immense stock of the finest selection of goods to be found in the San Francisco market. Sam's taste in the selection of a stock of goods is unsurpassed, and on his last trip up he surpassed himself. Call at the Paradise and see for yourself.

To-morrow afternoon Wood's Opera House Company will make their first appearance at Washington Gardens, and we shall doubtless be treated to a series of Sunday matinees hereafter. The performance will commence at 2 P. M. Admission 50 cents, children half price. All who wish an hour or two's recreation will do well to step in and witness the entertainment. A brass and string band will be among the attractions.

Mr. Frank Perkins, of Havilah, Kern county, showed us yesterday the design of a new cross-cut saw for felling timber, which he has invented and for which he has applied for patent. The distinctive feature is a bed with friction rollers, which guides and regulates the blade, until it has entered the body of the tree, when it will work its way through without binding or turning. The handles are semi-reversed from the usual cross-cut saw. The invention looks very simple and correct in its appliance, and we have no doubt it will prove a success.

We noticed on our streets yesterday a new and elegant top phæton, just completed by Page & Gravel for Messrs. Dupuy & Finney's Pioneer Livery Stable. For ladies making and returning calls there is nothing more stylish and convenient than this handsome vehicle. We are pleased to note the addition of some eight or ten elegant carriages and buggies, which have been manufactured by Page & Gravel for the popular Pioneer Stables, which for style, durability and neatness of finish cannot be excelled. We would advise our citizens when in want of a handsome turnout to give the Pioneer Stables a call.

A Kingdom for a Horse.

That is what Hancock Johnston said on the 9th inst., when he discovered that his half thorough-bred colt had been stolen from his premises. On that eventful morning at early rising, he went out to enjoy a feast of gazing upon his pet and he found his fence broken, and the son of his favorite Crichton vanished. The colt was five months old, and was a beauty. Officers were put in pursuit, and it was discovered that the animal had been taken away by one Juan Ramirez, with a band of horses to the San Fernando mountains. Day before yesterday, the said Ramirez and the colt were captured. The mare was taken out to the band of horses; the colt recognized his maternal friend and followed her back to the city. Mr. Ramirez was arrested, and brought before Justice Gray, and Thursday at 10 o'clock the trial was called. The prisoner's examination resulted in bonds being given in five hundred dollars, and a continuance until yesterday. After a tedious examination of witnesses and arguments of counsel the accused was held to appear before the Grand Jury which meets on Monday next. Mr. Johnston has obtained possession of his colt, in a mutilated condition, so for as cropping off mane and tail are concerned, but congratulates himself tnat the animal is intact in other respects. There are other parties who have lately lost horses and there is a prevailing feeling that a little hemp will do no harm if these pests of thieves do not stop their work.

The Rose.

The beauty of the myrtle, jessamine, hyacinth, primrose or heliotrope, is quite eclipsed when brought alongside the rose. The rose, that is sovereign lady of them all; how many dreams of full joy its fragrance brings—an hundred thousand rainbow colors for the future. Can it be true, the story they tell, that when the rose family bloomed in Eve's garden all its members were snow-white and turned to crimson by a drop of blood from the thorn-pierced foot of Venus, to whom it was afterward consecrated. Or, as modern poetry has sung, was it Eve's full, ripe, red lips, that in their farewell kiss gave them their rich color and gathered from her tears their perfume?

What sweetness and downy softness lingers in "the pinky palace" of the elegant moss rose. One could almost forego the pleasures of this human life and wish himself an airy sprite or some creeping thing to dwell therein. There is a bit of very old German poetry that gives its origin so quaint and pretty that when once read it lingers in our minds, present in our most beautiful thoughts:

"The angel of the flowers one day
Beneath a rose tree sleeping lay;
That spirit to whose charge is given
To bathe young buds in dew from heaven,
Awakening from his sweet respose,
The angel whispered to the rose:
'O fondest object of my care,
Still fairest found where all is fair—
Ask what thou wilt, 'tis granted thee.'
Then said the rose, with deepened glow,
'On me another grace bestow.'
The angel paused in silent thought—
What grace was there the rose had not?
'Twas but a moment, when o'er the rose
A veil of moss the angel throws—
And robed in nature's simplest weed
Could there a flower that rose exceed?"

ET WARDS.

SANTA ANITA, June, 1876.

Turner Excursion.

The grandest excursion of the season. Fun and enjoyment for the million. Anniversary of the Turn-Verein Germania, at Santa Monica, Sunday June 18th, 1876. The procession of the Turners and juveniles will march from their Hall to the Santa Monica depot and there take the 10 o'clock train for the above mentioned place. There will be Horizontal Bar performance by the Turners, juvenile exercises &c in the pavilion, tumbling on the beach, and best of all pyramid building in the water by the Turners in general. All are invited to attend and enjoy a good day's sport. Trains will leave at 10 o'clock to accommodate all. Dancing after 3 o'clock in the new pavilion and music by the best band in town. Don't fail to attend.

Both fire companies have received their new uniforms and will be ready for the parade in full feather on the Fourth. That of the Thirty-eights consists of red shirt, brass regulation buttons, with navy blue scarf, bearing in white the letters "L. A. F. D," blue hat and belt with white trimmings, and black pants. The Confidence boys will sport a black hat trimmed with gold, and belt to correspond, blue shirt trimmed with silver fringe and the breast ornamented with figure of hose carriage in gold. The make-up of both organizations will be exceedingly elegant and surpassed by few fire companies in the country.

The improvements in the Grand Central Hotel are progressing rapidly. The stairway leading from the upper stories is nearly completed, and when the entire repairs and renovations are finished, this will be the most popular place of resort in Southern California. The dining room is the most easy of access either from the street or the upper portion of the house; is commodious, airy and in every way convenient for the accommodation of guests. In the management of the cuisine the best of caterers will be employed. The alterations in the office will afford convenience and ease. The present proprietors know their business, and all may be sure that none go away dissatisfied who patronize them.

Washington Herald, May 4th: Senator Jones gave a large dinner party on Friday evening, among the guests being the President and Senators Howe, Conkling, Cameron and Logan. The Senator's wife has not been in good health this Winter, and this is his first dinner party. The presence of so many carriages before his residence Friday night gave rise to the belief that the Republicans were holding a Presidential caucus.

Officer McFadden has found Mrs. Treat, the witness in the watch case. The Chinaman awaits the Grand Jury.

Sandstorm at Seven Palms Wednesday.

Sam. Hellman has bought 4,000 feet of pipe from the Asbestine Company.

The water at Santa Monica has been tested and is just 68°.

Gleanings.

[From the Evening Republican.]

We are pleased to note that Mr. Lynch of the Express is improving.

The stock of J. W. Clark & Co. Anaheim, has been sold out for the benefit of their creditors.

Mrs. Gould, of Los Angeles, has been elected R. W. V. T. of the R. W. Lodge of Good Templars, recently in session at Louisville.

The poll tax must be paid by July 3d and we recommend all parties interested to call on Will R. Bettis, Room 9, Commercial Bank building.

An Anaheim correspondent informs us that Jack Wolf opens the Anaheim Hotel to-night and asks his old friends from Los Angeles to call and see him. We know that all his old acquaintances in this city will unite in wishing him every success in his new venture.

Among the shipments up to noon yesterday at the S P R R depot were 12 cases of honey from John Sieser; 75 bales of wool from H. Newmark & Co.; 228 sacks of corn from Aliso mills 60 orange trees from A. G. Miller; 72 orange trees from Dobs & Potts.

A correspondent asks us if there are twelve men in Los Angeles who can tip the scales at 250 pounds. He says "Your men are drying up." If this correspondent only knew George B. Davis. Mr. Graham, the architect, Dr. E. A. Preuss, Gen. Banning and a few whom we might name he would dry up about fat men. We know of no city where a fat men's convention might be held to better advantage and we believe even a fat woman's convention might be successful. One of the finest looking ladies of this city weighs 270 pounds and the united weight of herself and husband is 510 pounds. In fat people as well as other productions Los Angeles leads the world.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

STOCKS!

Profits Guaranteed!

NO LOSSES!

Those who have made more losses than profits heretofore may have an opportunity of dealing in stocks with a certainty of profits never before offered.

We claim the system as ORIGINAL.

From this date we propose to those who will invest sums ranging from $100 and upwards in Stock Privileges that we will receive their orders and guarantee them profits and against any loss whatever, no matter how high or low the market will go, from $100 to $100,000.

The higher the market goes, and the larger the fluctuations, the greater the profit to the customer and ourself.

We make our interest identical with our customers', which is the opposite of the old method.

To those who invest small sums ranging under $100 we will sign contracts as close as possible to the market price, having reduced our distances from 25 to 50 per cent. These distances will be signed for 10, 20 or 30 days, at the option of purchaser, and as laid down in our circular. Circular sent to any address free of charge.

We charge $1 per share for 10 days, $2 for 20 days and $3 for 30 days.

We refer to our numerous customers, who will be pleased to testify as to our fair dealing.

REASONS WHY
— THE —
REMINGTON FAMILY SEWING MACHINES
Are Superior to All Others.

FIRST—THEIR SIMPLICITY,

The use of them is very easily acquired, and any girl of ordinary intelligence is capable of keeping them in order.

SECOND—THE CONSTRUCTION of the Machine is such that it may be run at a higher rate of speed than any Shuttle Machine now in the market. In factories where the rate of speed has been registered, over

1,000 Stitches per Minute

have been attained with ease.

THIRD—THEIR DURABILITY

being so strong in all their parts and fitted with great mechanical nicety, and being free from the harsh jarring movements and friction so common in inferior machines they will wear a long time without repair of any kind.

FOURTH—THEIR ADAPTABILITY,

By a simple change of the needle and thread they will sew the finest cambric or the heaviest leather.

FIFTH—THEY HAVE NO ROTARY CAMS,

Cog-wheels or lever arms to make a noise, run hard, or to get out of order.

SIXTH—THEY HAVE AN ADJUSTABLE

Feed which may be raised or lowered at pleasure.

SEVENTH—ALL THEIR MOVEMENTS

are positive and they cannot be thrown out of time.

Manufactured by the Largest Manufacturing company in America, possessing a world-wide reputation in the manufacture of their firearms, they afford a guarantee of perfection in work and construction.

No other sewing machine has ever been introduced so quickly and met with such rapid sale as the

REMINGTON

It arouses the jealousy, opposition and persistent mis-representation of the older Sewing Machine Companies through their agents, and even the old Singer Company, through its agents devotes the largest part of its advertisements to show that it is not an improved Singer, and that its calculations are upon false basis.

"With malice toward none and charity for all," it will be the aim of the agent of the

to afford to all an opportunity of testing merits with those of any other, and let them make their own selection.

SEWING MACHINES!

If you are wanting to buy a Sewing Machine, try a new Wilson and you will have no other.

A trial will convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all others, being adjustable in all its parts, every movement being positive, with a perfect tension and adjustable feed. It is simple, strong, durable and cheap, light and rapid running, doing all the different varieties of sewing from the finest fabric to the heaviest cloth or leather.

The latest improved Wilson will not run backwards, thereby avoiding the breakage of needles and thread and necessitating the removal of the goods from the machine while winding the bobbins as is the case with all other machines. HIGHEST PREMIUM AT THE WORLD'S FAIR, Vienna 1873. A very important improvement has lately been added to the Wilson. Call and see it before purchasing elsewhere. To try one is to buy one.

You may be in the first stage; remember you are approaching the last. If you are bordering upon the last, and are suffering some or all of its ill effects, remember that if you persist in procrastination the time must come when the most skillful physician can render you no assistance; when the door of hope will be closed against you; when no angel of mercy can bring you relief. In no case has the Doctor failed of success. Then let not despair work upon your imagination, but avail yourself of the beneficial results of his treatment before your case is beyond the reach of medical skill, or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave.
